

A virtual conference hosted by the Yonsei University Centre on Oceania Studies

US-CHINA RIVALRY AND THE BIDEN DOCTRINE IN THE ASIA PACIFIC: Geopolitics, Geoeconomics, Technology & Values

OCTOBER 26-28, 2021

PROGRAM

October 26 (Tue) 20:30-22:30 (KST)

OPENING CEREMONY

Introductory Remarks: US-China Rivalry Past and Present
John Delury (Director, Centre on Oceania Studies)

Welcome Toast

H. E. Philip Turner (Ambassador of New Zealand to the Republic of Korea)

Session I THE CLASH OF NATIONS

Moderator

Chung-in Moon
(Sejong Institute,
Yonsei University
Emeritus)

THE BIDEN DOCTRINE FOR CHINA
John Ikenberry (Princeton University)

SINO-US RELATIONS IN THE NEW ERA
Wang Dong (Peking University)

THE US, CHINA, AND THE WORLD
Stein Tønnesson (Peace Research Institute, Oslo)

Q&A Session

October 27 (Wed) 09:00-10:30 (KST)

Session II ARENAS OF RIVALRY

Moderator

David Plott
(Global Asia)

GEOPOLITICS

Ryan Hass (Brookings Institution)

GEOECONOMICS

Miyeon Oh (Atlantic Council)

TECHNOLOGY

Lee Heejin (Yonsei University)

VALUES

Maria Repnikova (Georgia State University)

Q&A Session

October 28 (Thu) 09:00-10:30 (KST)

Session III VIEWS ACROSS THE REGION

Moderator

John Delury
(Yonsei University)

JAPAN

Sheila A. Smith (Council on Foreign Relations)

KOREA

Kim Joon-hyung (Handong Global University)

OCEANIA

Iati Iati (Victoria University of Wellington)

SOUTHEAST ASIA

Huong Le Thu (Australian Strategic Policy Institute)

Q&A Session

REGISTRATION LINK & QR CODE: <https://bit.ly/3mZRZeX>

