ABOUT YONSEI GSIS

Thank you for your interest in the Yonsei Graduate School of International Studies (GSIS). The Graduate School of International Studies lies at the center of Yonsei's commitment to internationalization and the education of global leaders. Yonsei GSIS was first established in 1987, motivated by a desire to meet the growing demand for international academic institutions, and was the first professional school dedicated exclusively to international studies in Korea. International students from all over the world provide a unique, multicultural learning environment where diversity is not just a slogan, but an enduring feature of the school's globalized student culture.

The core mission of Yonsei GSIS is to educate and train global leaders who transform themselves so that they can transform the world. In order to achieve this goal, programs at Yonsei GSIS offer a dynamic and rigorous curriculum taught by Korea's leading academics, equipping students with the theoretical knowledge and practical skills necessary to excel in the public and private sectors of the global arena.

This admissions guideline provides information pertaining to the application process, eligibility, and admissions criteria. Should you have any further questions or seek additional information, please contact our staff at the information listed below.

NIIED REQUIREMENTS

Visit the NIIED website for complete details of the program.

Regardless of whether you submit an application through the Embassy or University track, you must submit all required documents in one package, as indicated in our guideline. Yonsei GSIS requires supplementary documents, in addition to NIIED's requirement documents. Please read the 2019 GKS FAQ for information on universities requiring additional documentation.

For University Track applications, you only need to submit one original application package. Embassy Track applications must submit three copies through the embassy.

IMPORTANT THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE APPLYING

SUBMISSION OF DOCUMENTS

- Submitted documents become the property of Yonsei GSIS and will not be returned to the students.
- Applicants who transferred schools during their studies must submit their complete academic records from all of the applicable institutions, including transcripts and certificates of graduation/attendance.
- All documents must be in English. If documents are in another language, the applicant must submit a notarized/certified translation into English.
- All documents must be submitted by the application deadline in order to be considered for admission.
- You must use the GKS forms provided.

OTHER

- Yonsei GSIS does not disclose information related to the process of admissions decisions. Please do not contact the GSIS faculty for updates or information regarding admissions or financial decisions.
- Should the student be an expected graduate from an undergraduate program, then an offer of admission is not binding until the GSIS office verifies that the student has graduated with a bachelor's degree.
- If an applicant's personal information has been modified (i.e. change in name, nationality, etc.), the applicant should submit a photocopy of the document that records the change.
- The admissions board reserves the right to request an interview from the applicant. If an interview is requested, the applicant will be notified.
- Yonsei GSIS welcomes students from diverse academic backgrounds, recognizing that different fields of expertise provide unique perspectives, contributing to an actively advancing learning atmosphere.
- If you are accepted as a GKS scholar and enter the program in Fall 2019, you must submit an apostille of your transcript to Yonsei GSIS by the end of September 2019.
