This should be an original document that is stamped/signed by your bank, not a scan or a printout of your mobile banking account.
Proof of Language Proficiency	Submit the language according to your program	The original document of your English, Chinese or Korean proof of language proficiency.

Apostilles

- Admitted students will also need to submit apostilles. The exact deadline will be announced after the decision announcement has been made. However, since apostilles must be submitted in order to receive your Certificate of Admission, we recommend preparing this document in advance. You will need your Certificate of Admission to receive your visa.
- The Republic of Korea is a signatory member of The Hague Apostille Convention. The apostille ensures that public documents issued in one signatory country will be considered as valid in another signatory country. For more information about apostilles, please refer to <http://www.hcch.net/>.
- The apostille must be an original, but the document itself (transcript/diploma) can be a photocopy. Since the apostille must be an original, the document must be mailed via post and not sent through email. If your apostilled transcript has your graduation date clearly listed, you only need to submit an apostilled transcript and not an apostilled diploma as well.

Students who graduated from institutions in HAC signatory countries:

- Official apostilles of your diploma and official transcript.
- All documents must be in English. Any other language requires a notarized translation.

Students who graduated from institutions in China:

- Verifications of your Degree and Academic Records issued by the China

Academic Degrees & Graduate Education Development Center (CDGDC) or China Higher Education Student Information and Career Center (CHESICC/CHSI). These should be issued in English or you must submit a notarized translation into English.

Students who graduated from institutions in HAC non-signatory countries:

- Verifications of your diploma and official transcript by the local Korean embassy in the country you graduated from.

Students who graduated from institutions in Korea:

- Official verification other than your certificate of graduation and official transcript are not required.
