ABOUT YONSEI GSIS

Thank you for your interest in the Yonsei Graduate School of International Studies (GSIS). The Graduate School of International Studies lies at the center of Yonsei's commitment to internationalization and the education of global leaders. Yonsei GSIS was first established in 1987, motivated by a desire to meet the growing demand for international academic institutions, and was the first professional school dedicated exclusively to international studies in Korea. International students from all over the world provide a unique, multicultural learning environment where diversity is not just a slogan, but an enduring feature of the school's globalized student culture.

The core mission of Yonsei GSIS is to educate and train global leaders who transform themselves so that they can transform the world. In order to achieve this goal, programs at Yonsei GSIS offer a dynamic and rigorous curriculum taught by Korea's leading academics, equipping students with the theoretical knowledge and practical skills necessary to excel in the public and private sectors of the global arena.

This admissions guideline provides information pertaining to the application process, eligibility, and admissions criteria. Should you have any further questions or seek additional information, please contact our staff at the information listed below.

IMPORTANT THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE APPLYING

SUBMISSION OF DOCUMENTS

- All submitted records and documents become the property of Yonsei GSIS and will not be returned to the students in any case. Similarly, the application fee is nonrefundable.
- If an applicant's personal information has been modified (i.e. change in name, nationality, etc.), the applicant should submit a photocopy of the document that records the change.
- All documents must be submitted by the application deadline in order to be considered for admission.

OTHER

- Yonsei GSIS does not disclose information related to the process of admissions decisions. Please do not contact the GSIS faculty for updates or information regarding admissions or financial decisions.
- Should the student be an expected graduate from an undergraduate program, then an offer of admission is not binding until the GSIS office verifies that the student has graduated with a bachelor's degree.
- The admissions board reserves the right to request an interview from the applicant. If an interview is requested, the applicant will be notified.
- Yonsei GSIS welcomes students from diverse academic backgrounds, recognizing that different fields of expertise provide unique perspectives, contributing to an actively advancing learning atmosphere.
- The program begins on Tuesday, March 2, 2021.

ADMISSIONS CRITERIA

Admissions decisions are made based on the overall strength of the candidate's application, including academic achievements and potential as well as personal accomplishments.

The admissions board takes a number of factors into consideration, including GPA, personal statement and study plan, letters of recommendation, and English proficiency. The appropriateness of the candidate's academic and career goals, as well as preparation for the desired program will also be considered.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR ADMITTED STUDENTS

An admissions offer will be rescinded if false information or unfair practice for admissions is found to have been used at any time during the application period. This applies even after the student has enrolled at Yonsei GSIS.

TUITION PAYMENT

The tuition for Spring 2021 is proposed to be 7,020,000 KRW per semester. There is a one-time admissions fee of 1,195,000 KRW, applicable to new incoming students only. Admitted students who accept the offer of admission are expected to pay the one-time admissions fee and tuition during the designated period. If the amount is not paid, then admission will be rescinded.

VISA

The Certificate of Admission will only be issued to admitted students who require a D-2 visa.

HOUSING

Yonsei GSIS does not oversee housing for students. Applications and questions regarding housing should be directed to the relevant dormitories. Information about the three main dormitories (SK Global House, International House, Muak Dormitories) can be found here.

DEFERRAL

Admitted students may defer enrollment into the GSIS program for up to two semesters. This decision must be made before the designated tuition payment period. The student is required to complete a Letter of Deferral that must be submitted to the GSIS office.

APOSTILLE

The Republic of Korea is a signatory member of The Hague Apostille Convention. The apostille ensures that public documents issued in one signatory country will be considered as valid in another signatory country. For more information about apostilles, please refer to <http://www.hcch.net/>. Apostilles should be submitted by the second week of term.

Students who graduated from institutions in HAC signatory countries:

- Official apostilles of your diploma and official transcript.
- All documents must be in English. Any other language requires a notarized translation.

Students who graduated from institutions in China:

- Verifications of your Degree and Academic Records issued by the China Academic Degrees & Graduate Education Development Center (CDGDC) or China Higher Education Student Information and Career Center (CHESICC/CHSI). These should be issued in English or you must submit a notarized translation into English.

Students who graduated from institutions in HAC non-signatory countries:

- Verifications of your diploma and official transcript by the local Korean embassy in the country you graduated from.

Students who graduated from institutions in Korea:

- Official verification other than your certificate of graduation and official transcript are not required.
